ABOUT CARAMOOR

Our mission is to enrich the lives of audiences through innovative and diverse musical performances of the highest quality, mentor young professional musicians, and engage children through interactive, educational experiences that deepen their relationship to and understanding of music. These three prongs – music performance, musician mentoring, and music education – infuse everything we do.

Located in Katonah, NY in northern Westchester, Caramoor Center for Music and the Arts, Inc. is a 501c3 non-profit arts center founded in 1946. Encompassing 80-acres, Caramoor presents 50-60 live music performances throughout the year, culminating in a major summer season starting in June and going through early August.

Caramoor was the summer home of Lucie and Walter Rosen, music and art lovers who opened their home to the public for people to enjoy concerts and be inspired by the beautiful gardens, historic buildings, and art collection. A wide variety of music is presented including classical, jazz, American roots, world, American songbook, family programs, and more. Caramoor also has a permanent and rotating collection of sound art installed throughout the property. The facilities and grounds are rented out for private events as well.

Caramoor also trains the next generation of classical musicians and provides music-based arts education to local schoolchildren. Through its public programs and community events, Caramoor serves approximately 40,000 people annually.

Caramoor joins with those who seek to promote equality, eradicate injustice, and support inclusion. As in a choir, our world benefits from a multitude of voices coming together in harmony.

Caramoor is an Equal Opportunity Employer (EEO); this means that all aspects of employment, including but not limited to, recruiting, advertising, hiring, training, promotions, compensation, benefits, transfers, layoffs, return from layoffs, disciplinary action and discharge shall be conducted on the basis of qualification and ability without regard to actual or perceived race, religion, political affiliation, disability, sex (including sexual violence and sexual harassment), sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy or any reproductive health decisions, genetic disposition, neurodiversity, color, age, weight, national origin, citizenship, familial status, marital status, domestic victim status, military and veteran status or any other basis protected by law.

We pledge to uphold equality in our hiring and employment practices, and to create an environment where everyone, from any background, can do their best work.
